History

Domaine Manière, located in the village of Vosne Romanée, is managed by the Manière family since 3 generations.

The grand father and the father of Richard Manière, now owner of the domaine, have succeeded on this exploitation of about 8 hectares.

The domaines is doing hand picked harvest, traditional vinification, and for villages and Iers Crus, the élevage is done in barrel. Only the generic appellations stay in cask.

The top value of the domaine

The domaine is working with methods that will bring good wines : lutte raisonnée in the vineyards, plowing, limited production, green harvest... All the conditions are put together to let the Terroir express itself.

The domaine has the chance to have a nice range of appellation : Echézeaux - Vosne Romanée 1er cru Suchots - Nuits 1er cru Les Boudots, Les damodes - Vosne Romanée Village - Nuits saint Georges Blanc - Bourgogne pinot noir, aligoté...
